Dear Adi, Ben and Simone

Thank you very much for your five shortlisted entries into our logo competition. We congratulate Adi Tait for your winning design as announced at our meeting last evening.

Adi's winning design is below. The concept utilises the image of the three old coolstores on the wharf and a stylised version of Hamish the heron. The coolstores not only give the impression of a mountain range which is a backdrop to this region but also of houses within a community. Adi, would you be able to send me a better copy for our use? This one below is just a cut and paste from your single pdf document which included three designs.

Thank you to all of you who submitted entries into this competition.

Kind Regards
Mary Garner
