OUR STRATEGY

ACNT is on an upwards trajectory. In the last 5 years our revenue has doubled, we've added staff and services, and invested in our facilities. We are the go-to agency for older people in our region, and our reputation is well earned and second to none. Our strategy includes an internally focussed goal to consistently be the best, and this includes developing our staff and our governance.

ABOUT US

ACNT's vision is for all older people to live a meaningful life in an inclusive society. Our mission is to create connections and promote wellbeing, rights, respect and dignity for older people in our region. We provide information, support, advice and referral for people aged 65+ and their families/whanau through our core services of Elder Abuse Response, Accredited Visitor, Carer Relief and AgeConnect. We offer a range of events and activities at our newly renovated hall, provide education and training to other organisations, and deliver information sessions and advice on a wide range of age-related topics. ACNT's values are to be empathetic, approachable, collaborative, responsive and non-judgemental.

ROLES AVAILABLE

If you're looking to add value in a governance role to a successful non-profit organisation, we are currently seeking expressions of interest to stand for Board election at our AGM in September. We need one new Board member to cover retirements, but our Constitution could allow four. AGM appointments are for two years. The Board meets eight to 10 times per year, typically for 1 – 2 hours, and there are other opportunities to provide mentoring and support for staff.

IDEAL APPLICANT

You will reflect and embrace diversity, be it of knowledge, skills, background, age, gender, race or thought. You will be focussed on good governance and passionately support ACNT's vision and mission. You will fit. You will be a team player, while still challenging thinking. You will acknowledge Māori as tangata whenua of Aotearoa, and display an openness to multiculturalism.

Please contact us if this sounds like you, noting a cover letter would be very helpful.
