Hi Mike

That's correct behind the fruit and Vedge shop, bigger reserve than you imagine.

I have attached the proposed course, which you can pass on to the community association with the first attachment, we do need there feedback on if the community would or wouldn't like a permanent Disc golf course.

Just to confirm the only visible changes if a permeant course does go ahead, is the installation of a basket to catch the discs and a inground foot pad for the start position, all maintained by the club (no extra mowing though they have shown shaded area on the plan to highlight the fairways)

Kind regards

Richard

Thanks Richard,

Aranui Park is behind the Fruit And Vege Shop, opposite Tessa May's.....are you sure this is the area they are talking about ?

Also, do you mind if I send the attachment onto the Mapua Community Assn? (they can publicise the event on their new noticeboard)

Hi Mike

Just a heads up regarding a pop disc golf event in Aranui park, with the potential of a permanent course. You may be asked a few questions as I know the park is popular for a select few.

A permanent course will be entirely funded by Nelson/Tasman disc golf including ongoing maintenance. The footprint is small and will not impact on other activities in the reserve. The course would be designed so it doesn't impact on garden maintenance costs.

Kind regards

Richard

Hi there,

Attached is the draft of the article regarding the Aranui Park Disc Golf event – largely keeping with Kevin's blurb but just angling towards our Newsline style and word length.

As Sarah mentioned, if there's any feedback forthcoming, let us know on Monday.

Have a great weekend.

Hi Tim,

Below is a blurb on the proposed Aranui Disc Golf course and the upcoming pop up event for June 1st

The Nelson Tasman Disc Golf Club will be hosting a "pop up" disc golf day at Aranui Park in Mapua on Sunday June 1st (Kings Birthday Weekend).

The club had this site suggested to it from a local community and club member and the club have been working with the Parks and Reserves Team at Tasman District Council with a view to engaging the community about permanently installing a beginner friendly 9 hole Disc Golf course. The club believes this would be another valuable community asset for Mapua and fits well with Tasman District Councils view of multi use spaces.

Disc Golf is a relatively inexpensive sport to get into and most courses are free to play.

It's also a sport for all ages and abilities and is a great way to get outside and be active while having fun.

Aranui Park is an ideal location for a short, fun and inclusive 9 hole course.

This site will add another link in the progression of players using the current local courses the club has raised thousands of dollars in funds to install and maintains via volunteer working bees of club members at Isel Park (Beginner), Branford Park (Intermediate), Saxton Field (Advanced) and Rabbit Island (Elite)

On the first Sunday of each month the Nelson Tasman Disc Golf Club holds a monthly 'Cup Day' event at one of the local courses where our members compete for club trophies and tags. On June 1st cup day will be held at Aranui Park with club members bringing their own temporary baskets and tee pads to create the proposed course.

Once the club event is complete (around 11am) the course will remain setup till 2pm allowing any interested community members to come down, borrow a disc, have a chat with members of the club for some tips and tricks and try out the proposed course for themselves.

We hope to see you there!

Tim, let me know if there is any more information you would like to include in the article that I may be able to provide. We currently don't have any Disc Golf related photos of Aranui Park but a generic photo of a disc golf basket should do the trick. We will take photos on the day.

Feel free to email the final draft to us to have a look at if you need to make any changes.

Regards,

Kevin
